

PRESS RELEASE

Training successfully completed

Braunform is proud of the successful completion of three talented trainees. After several years of intensive training, Leon Engler, Jonas Haas and Lars Schwörer have successfully passed their final exams as tool mechanics. They are now ready to continue their careers at Braunform, as all three have been offered permanent employment.

Leon Engler has specialised in the milling department and Jonas Haas has started in the die-sinking and surface grinding department - both at the Bahlingen site. Lars Schwörer has joined the Maintenance team in the Pharma Production department at the Eendingen plant. Congratulations to all of them!

"We are very proud of our trainees and their achievements," says Urs Breitenbach, Head of Technical Training. "Their hard work and commitment have paid off and we look forward to supporting them in the next phase of their of their careers at Braunform."

Braunform is known for its strong commitment to training young professionals and sees this success as confirmation of its efforts. The company looks forward to continuing to invest in the training and development of its employees and looks forward to the contributions these young professionals will make in the years to come.

Picture survey:

From the left: Urs Breitenbach (Head of Technical Training), Oliver Bornhäuser (Head of HR and Finance), Journeymen: Jonas Haas, Lars Schwörer, Leon Engler and General Manager Joachim Stiller

Braunform at a glance

Braunform GmbH, founded in 1977 by Erich Braun in Bahlingen a. K., today is one of the world's leading partners in the field of plastic mold making. The long-term oriented family business has made it its goal to produce injection molds for whose end products - according to today's standards - plastic as a raw material is without alternative or more resource-saving than the possible alternative. The unique selling point of the mold-shop is the pharmaceutical production in own clean rooms according to GMP C and D. Today, Braunform GmbH is managed by Mrs. Pamela Braun (Managing Partner), Mr. Emmanuel Foyer (General Manager) and Mr. Joachim Stiller (General Manager). With 380 employees, the company is considered to be an important employer in the region in the southwest of Germany.